BRIEF SUMMARY

Introduction:

On the occasion of Bharat Ratna Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam Jayanti, the day which is celebrated across Maharashtra as “Vachan Prerna Din” (Reading Inspiration Day), a meaningful and intellectually stimulating event — Constitution Reading Programme — was organized jointly by Karmaveer Bhaurao Patil College, Urun–Islampur and Prof. Dr. N. D. Patil Law College, Urun–Islampur. The programme was held in the college auditorium on 14th October 2025 under the guidance of the respected principals of both colleges. The initiative aimed to instill constitutional values among students and staff, and to inspire reading habits in memory of Dr. Kalam’s vision of an educated, aware, and responsible youth. A total of 103 participants, including faculty members, NSS and NCC volunteers, library staff, and students from both institutions, actively took part in this unique and thought-provoking programme.

Programme Commencement:

The programme began with a warm welcome of the dignitaries, faculty, and participants. The event opened with the lighting of the traditional lamp and a brief prayer, symbolizing enlightenment through knowledge and learning.

The inaugural address and programme introduction were delivered by Librarian Prof. Abhaykumar Patil, who served as the proposer of the event. In his introductory remarks, Prof. Patil highlighted the objective behind observing Vachan Prerna Din. He spoke about Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam’s immense contribution as a scientist, visionary, and educator, emphasizing how his thoughts continue to ignite young minds. Prof. Patil further elaborated that reading is not merely a habit but a life-changing activity that broadens one’s outlook and strengthens national values. He connected the importance of reading to the significance of knowing one’s Constitution — a document that defines India’s democratic soul.

Constitution Reading Session:

Following the introduction, Principal Dr. Archana Thorat delivered an insightful speech on the importance of the Indian Constitution. She underlined how the Constitution serves as the foundation of Indian democracy, embodying justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity. She encouraged students to understand not only their rights but also their duties as citizens. After her brief address, she read aloud the Preamble of the Constitution, with all participants joining in unison. The collective reading created an atmosphere of patriotism, respect, and unity.

Afterwards, Prof. Sujata Chopade took the floor to read the section on Fundamental Rights. She explained how these rights safeguard the dignity and freedom of every citizen, and she urged students to appreciate the constitutional vision that guarantees equality and justice to all.

The next part of the reading session was conducted by Dr. Baliram Sawant, who focused on Fundamental Duties. He elaborated on how duties complement rights and are essential for maintaining harmony and discipline in society. Through his remarks, he motivated students to practice constitutional morality and civic responsibility in their day-to-day life.

Presidential Address:

The programme concluded with an inspiring presidential address by Principal Dr. Nitin Shinde. Dr. Shinde spoke at length about the relevance of the Constitution in the contemporary era. He emphasized that while the Constitution provides a strong framework for governance, it is the responsibility of every citizen, especially the youth, to uphold its principles in action. He reminded students that democracy survives only when citizens perform their duties sincerely and respect the rule of law. Dr. Shinde appealed to the young generation to become socially aware, to think critically, and to act responsibly.

Coordination and Participation:

The event was effectively coordinated by Dr. Prakash Athawale, who ensured smooth execution of every segment. The entire session was skillfully anchored by Prof. Ashwini Thorat, whose articulate and engaging narration maintained the enthusiasm of the audience throughout.

The vote of thanks was proposed by Prof. Eknath Patil, who expressed heartfelt gratitude to all dignitaries, participants, and volunteers for their valuable presence and contribution. He also acknowledged the active support of the library committee, NSS and NCC units, and the Marathi Department for making the programme successful.

Conclusion:

The Vachan Prerna Din 2025 – Constitution Reading Programme concluded on a note of inspiration and patriotism. The event not only celebrated the memory of Bharat Ratna Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam but also reinforced the importance of reading as a lifelong process of growth and self- development.

The programme served as a reminder that every citizen must understand, respect, and live by the Constitution to ensure a progressive, democratic, and inclusive India. The presence of 103 enthusiastic participants made the event truly vibrant and meaningful.

The combined efforts of all organizers, faculty members, and students turned this day into a memorable and impactful learning experience — a step forward in building a generation that reads, reflects, and acts for the betterment of the nation.
